

Christmas in Irish and Scottish style returns to Atlanta

The rollicking high spirits and mystical beauty of Celtic and Appalachian music return to Atlanta as the 16th annual Atlanta Celtic Christmas Concert comes to the Schwartz Center for Performing Arts at Emory University. Performances will be Friday, Dec. 12, at 8 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 13, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 14, 2:30 p.m. James W. Flannery is the director and host.

The concert features dance, poetry, song and story with Grammy winner Alison Brown, banjo; Garry West, bass; Joe Craven, fiddle; John Doyle, guitar and vocals; R.I.S.E.; Rising Appalachia and the Elders; The Buddy O'Reilly Band; Scottish Pipers (Henry Frantz, Fran Frantz and John Recknagel); Kelly Stewart, harp; Irish and Southern Clog Dancers choreographed by Lisa Cregan O'Brien; and the Glencoe Scottish Dancers choreographed by Mary Recknagel.

Tickets are $25 for the general public; patrons younger than 18 and older than 65 and other discount category members may purchase tickets for $20. Student tickets are $10. To purchase tickets, call the box office at (404) 727-5050 or visit www.arts.emory.edu/tickets/.

